Experience.

We are James and Adrienne Boyd, owners of Seven Lakes tile since February 14, 2000. After purchasing the company, we immediately expanded the product lines and services we carry. In 2008, we changed our name to Barron Tile and Stone. We regularly attend the largest trade shows in the industry and stay abreast of the latest developments both in new products and in the latest techniques for installation. We are both personally and fully invested in the Tile & Stone industry with the goal of providing you - our client - a timeless design that matches your taste and lifestyle.

James provides highly-regarded in-home consultation, while Adrienne offers her expertise as our showroom consultant. We make an exceptional team, and look forward to putting our skills to work for you.
